Alabama Department of Revenue Renews SOURCECORP® Contract

DALLAS, Texas (October 19, 2009) – SOURCECORP, Incorporated (SOURCECORP), a leading provider of business process outsourcing solutions and specialized high value consulting services, is holding a ribbon cutting ceremony with Governor Robert Riley on Thursday, October 22, 2009 at 10:30 a.m. in their new Business Process Solutions (BPS) facility located at 606 HWY 31 South, Georgiana, Alabama. The ceremony is in honor of a five year contract renewal for mailroom and data entry services between the Alabama Department of Revenue and SOURCECORP.

"In February of this year, after the successful completion of our most recent contract, SOURCECORP was awarded a new 5 year contract for mailroom and data entry services with the Alabama Department of Revenue as well as with the Alabama Department of Corrections," state Kerry Walbridge, President of SOURCECORP's BPS Division. "The nearly ten year partnership between SOURCECORP and the State of Alabama has done much to promote economic growth and stability for the surrounding communities."

"As one of the largest employers in Georgiana, SOURCECORP has created 75 full-time employee positions and up to 200 seasonal employee positions, equating to more than $2.5M in annual salaries entering into the local economy," stated Georgiana Mayor Michael Middleton. "Additionally, SOURCECORP proudly sponsors various local athletic and community groups, fostering and maintaining strong relationships with the local community and business leaders."

SOURCECORP, Incorporated provides business process outsourcing solutions and specialized high value consulting services to clients throughout the United States. SOURCECORP focuses on business processes in information-intensive industries including healthcare, legal, commercial, financial services, government, and transportation & logistics. Headquartered in Dallas, SOURCECORP serves clients throughout the United States through a network of locations in the U.S., Mexico, Philippines and India.
